The Elms, Abberley

A beautiful Queen Anne mansion in extensive grounds, The Elms is as impressive inside as out. For years, the house served as a grand family home, and now it offers an equally warm welcome to guests.

With 23 tastefully designed bedrooms equipped with every amenity and with its warm and welcoming staff, The Elms Hotel is dedicated to making your stay truly enjoyable.

The Elms offers a variety of rooms, all of which are charming and classically elegant. The accommodation types available are Classic, Superior or Feature. Each room is individual in style.

Breakfast is a relaxed affair in the Terrace restaurant, with a generous Continental buffet or full English breakfast.

For dinner, The Brookes Restaurant serves its Best of British-inspired menu.

Many of the key ingredients come from the hotel's own Kitchen Garden.

The Elms boasts a fine spa, pools and treatment rooms. The outdoor pool is of sufficient size to exercise the fitness conscious, whilst the cedar-scented sauna, steam rooms, and feature showers treat both body and soul.

On warmer days, enjoy a drink on the terrace overlooking the walled Kitchen Garden in peace and quiet.

Tall, square, solid and stylish, Dinham Hall, built in 1792 by Samuel Nash, agent to the Earls of Powys, is the epitome of a grand Georgian family home.

Furnished with beautiful period antiques, the house is now presented as an elegant 13 bedroom hotel with each room offering the charm and proportions typical of the Georgian Period.

This late 18th Century mansion stands in the heart of historic Ludlow opposite the impressive Medieval Castle - an enviable location with splendid views of the Castle ramparts, Whitcliffe, the Teme river valley and the town rooftops.

Guests can relax in Dinham's restful lounges and pretty terraces, and enjoy fine dining in the outstanding Elliots Brasserie. French Chef Olivier Bossut is renowned for his interpretation of French dishes, and he specialises in giving delicious twists to the classics everybody loves.

A gem of an hotel, Dinham Hall provides guests with ready access to the town's broad streets, narrow lanes, graceful buildings and mellow beauty. Ludlow offers the discerning visitor an eclectic mix of quaint shops, and the market square is just 50m away.

Overton Grange, Ludlow

Overton Grange is a beautiful Country House Hotel located just over a mile from Ludlow, in the unspoiled South Shropshire countryside.

Overton has 14 bedrooms, each with breath-taking views over the surrounding countryside, and each full of character and individually styled, but all offering excellent and comfortable facilities and elegant surroundings with stunning views from the restaurant, and fine food - the cuisine is Michelin accredited, while the kitchen has also been awarded 2 AA Red Rosettes.

Dining at Overton Grange Hotel is a combination of experiences; tranquil

The food at Overton Grange is a matter of pride to the proprietors and kitchen team alike. They believe dining is a pleasure and to share the enjoyment of an exquisite dish is one of life's luxuries.

They have built up an enthusiastic young team in the kitchen, and Head Chef Tom Jacks and his staff are all dedicated and passionate about food.

Overton Grange is an ideal place to relax, with stylish and comfortable lounge and bar areas. There is also a superb indoor pool with sauna and spa treatments available - these need to be booked in advance, directly with the hotel.

Chateau Impney, Droitwich Spa

An enchanting boutique country house hotel just minutes from the Regency town of Droitwich Spa as well as Junction 5 of the M5. Chateau Impney is one of the finest examples of classic French chateau-style buildings in the UK, with a rich history spanning over 100 years.

Within the elegant walls of the Grade II* listed Chateau, you'll find beautiful original features – its distinctive charm lies in its breathtaking blend of iconic French architecture with a stunning English parkland setting.

The ornamental gardens around the Chateau descend into 140 acres of picturesque grounds.

From large and lavish to cosy and comfortable, there are a range of room types on offer. Choose from Economy, Classic, Executive and Superior.

The original features of the Chateau blend flawlessly with contemporary design to offer the vibrancy of open-plan dining, yet still with a feeling of intimacy.

The recently refurbished restaurant combines the elegant décor of the Chateau with a modern, relaxed feel that provides the perfect setting in which to enjoy breakfast. The most elegant dining can be enjoyed in the Grand Ballroom, with a delightful terrace overlooking the sweeping grounds of the Chateau.
